

Two day All India First Nations Writers Conference

10-11 June (Saturday-Sunday) 2023, Jai Valley, Bhadarwa (Jammu & Kashmir)

Proposed Program

9th June 2023 (by evening): Delegate Registration

10 June 2023: 9 am to 11 am: Inaugural Session

1. Ancestor Remembrance
2. Welcome
3. Conference Introduction

First session: 11.15am till everyone participates

1. Indian Perspective of Tribal Literature

Representatives from North-East, East, West, Central and South India will participate in this session on the above mentioned topics.

2. Tribal communities of Jammu and Kashmir and their literature

Representatives of Jammu and Kashmir will inform the conference about the community and literature on this subject.

(Each participant will be given 15 minutes in this session on both these topics, in which they will speak briefly and accurately. It would be better if they mail us their detailed article by May 25, 2023, so that it can be published in the form of a booklet in the conference. can be distributed.)

Second Session: Formation of the All India First Nations Writers' Forum

(This session will start only when all the speakers in the first session have spoken)

June 11, 2023 : 9 am to 11 am

Third Session: Publication of the multilingual Adivasi Quarterly Journal 'AdivasiFirstNation'

Fourth session: 11.15 am to 1.30 am

Formation of the Executive Committee of the Forum, the Editorial Team of the Journal and the announcement of the Jai Valley Tribal Literary Proposal

Fifth Session: 2.30 to 5 pm

All India First Nations Poetic Storytelling Performance
(reading of poems and songs)

Sixth Session: 6.30 to 9.30 am

All India First Nations Storytelling Performance
(reading of stories)

June 12, 2023: 8 am to 9 am

farewell ceremony

Note: This is a proposed program in which changes are possible till the last moment due to your opinion and advice.